Numb. 726.

So^th.-Carolina THE GAZETTE:

Containing the freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestick.

From MONDAY March 7th, to MONDAY March 14th, 1748.

LONDON, Oct. 20.

THE King of Spain has issued an Ordinance, forbidding all Counsellors and Attorneys at Law, and Physicians, to ride in Coaches thro' the Streets of Madrid, and allowing the Use of Mules to such of them, as thro' Age or Infirmities, are not able to walk on Foot.

By a Letter from Worcester we have an Account, that a Reverend Clergymen has been served with a Copy of a Writ for 7000 l. on account of a Trial at a Court of Judicature, for his not performing a Marriage Contract.

We hear from Rome, that the Gift made by the Pretender in his late Pilgrimage or Journey to our Lady of Loretto, consisted of a Gold Bust representing a Warrior, with his own Picture, and that of his eldest Son; which presents are, perhaps, design'd to render our Lady propitious to his Heir in some future Adventure.

We learn by private Letters from Dusseldorp, that Baron Theodore de Neuhoff lately arriv'd there with six Persons in his Retinue in his Way to Cologne, from whence he gave out that he intended to go to Holland, and after a short Stay there, to proceed for England, which occasions much Speculation.

They write from Vienna, that many General Officers flock there, with a Design of consulting about the Operations of the next Campaign; and that great Numbers of Recruits are raising in the Hereditary Territories, in order to take the Field soon in the Spring. It is to be hoped, that these early Councils and Preparations will enable a certain Power to act in concert with its staunch and faithful Allies, before the common Enemy has finished the Operations of the Campaign, and is ready for taking Winter Quarters.

LONDON, October 22.

Yesterday two Expresses arrived from Scotland, since which, we hear, six Expresses have been dispatch'd to divers Parts from the War Office.

LONDON, October 24.

Letters from Paris assure, that the French King has given Orders for the Augmentation of his Fleet, new Men of War are laid on the Stocks, and work'd upon with the utmost Diligence, in all the Yards of the Kingdom.

We have an Account from Rotterdam, that their Letters from Antwerp of the 24th of October, mention it as a Thing certain, that Orders had been sent to M. Chiquet, to threaten the seizing all the Dutch Ships in the Ports of France, in Case a French Vessel homeward-bound from the West-Indies lately carried into the Texel, was not immediately discharged.

The foreign Letters from Spain, Italy, France, and some Parts of Germany, are setting forward Ministers with great Pomp and Magnificence, to the approaching Congress at Aix la Chapelle. But at the same Time they tell us, that People of the keenest Penetration think it will be of little Use besides keeping the Tongues of the Ministers of the several Powers in Action, during the Season which confine the Arms of the Soldiers in a State of Inactivity.

LONDON, November 10.

We are assured, that Passports are arrived from the Court of Madrid, for such Persons as shall bring Fish into any of the Ports of Spain from Newfoundland and Cape-Breton, in English Ships.

We hear that all the first and second Rate Men of War will, as fast as possible, be reduced to seventy and eighty-gun Ships.

The Senate of Sweden has granted great Privileges to several Persons, who have undertaken to establish new Manufactures in that Kingdom, and promises considerable Rewards, besides all the Privilege imaginable, to those who offer new Methods of cultivating the Lands to more Advantage, than they have hitherto been. Favours are also proposed to those who will employ themselves in discovering of Gold and Silver Mines, of which, by many Appearances, there are thought to be many in that Kingdom.

Letters from Leghorn mention, that an Embarkation will be made from Port-Mahon, in order to reduce the Island of Corsica, which now serves the French and Spaniards to put in at upon Occasion, and that Admiral Byng has ordered all Ships to be searched, whose Crews do not consist of two Thirds of the Subjects of that Power whose Flag they sail under.

It's said, that Transports are order'd to bring over eight of our Regiments from Flanders, as soon as possible.

We hear that the Hon. John Forbes, Esq; Son of the Earl of Granard, and Rear-Admiral of his Majesty's Fleet, will be appointed Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Ships in the West-Indies.

We hear that the Amazon Man of War, who was taken by two French Privateers, has found Means to escape from them in the Night.

They talk very positively at Brussels of a new Alliance, Offensive and Defensive, between the Kings of France and Spain on the one Part, and a certain Potent Prince in Germany on the other Part, whose Name, however, they do not mention.

On Saturday last died Mrs. Ball, in Lamb-Alley in Bishopsgate-street, (who according to her own particular Desire) was open'd by Dr. Middleton in the Presence of several eminent Physicians, &c. and a Child found within her, (tho' not in the Womb) where it has lain 16 Years, in which Time she has had four Children all born alive; this Case being so remarkable, the Particulars of it will, we hear, in a little Time be communicated to the Royal Society; for the Satisfaction and Entertainment of the Curious.

Lyme, Nov. 9. Yesterday at 12 o'Clock Admiral Boscawen, with 11 Men of War, and 25 other Ships appear'd off this Place, and made a most gallant Appearance. As the Wind was at S. W. they continued in sight all Day; and it is supposed they are now in Torbay. We have a Report here, that the French Fleet are sailed for the Canaries, to resit the two Men of War that escaped Admiral Hawk; if so, it's hoped that Admiral Boscawen may give some Account of them.

Hague, Nov. 10. His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland left this Place last Wednesday Morning for the Camp at Terheyde. M. Chiquet waited a few Days ago upon the Pensionary, with Complaints in the French King's Name, that no Attention, nor even any Answer had been yet given to the Memorials sent to their High Mightinesses by the Abbe de la Ville; declaring, at the same Time, that he had Orders from his Majesty to insist upon a speedy and categorical Answer, especially to the last Memorial delivered to them. M. Van Haren the younger, Commissary General to the Swiss Troops, in this Service, set out this Morning for Switzerland, where he is to negociate, in the Protestant Cantons, several new Battalions, in order to increase, to the Number of 20,000 Men, the Troops of that Nation in the Service of this Republick.

LONDON, November 12.

We are informed by Letters from Holland, that an Answer has been given to the Memorial presented by the French Ministry, which complains in Substance, of the Perfidy of the French Court, who had in the last Century brought the United-Provinces to a very low Ebb, but were themselves afterwards punish'd for their wicked Intentions; that it is not doubted they will again be punish'd, for what

what they have lately committed; that their High Mightineſſes approve the Conduct of their Admiral; and have condemn'd the French Ships taken by him as lawful Prize; and they have given Directions to their Subjects to make Repriſals on the French wherever they meet them, &c. &c.

The following Particulars, relating to the gallant Admiral Hawke, we doubt not will be agreeable to our Readers. This Gentleman's Father was of Saltaſh in Cornwall, and a Barriſter of Lincoln's Inn, where the Admiral was born. His Mother, (whoſe preſent Name is Sharpe, and Siſter to the late Col. Bladen, Commiſſioner of Trade) now lives in York, and is a Native of that County. Mr Hawke was made Captain of the Flamborough Man of War at Jamaica, by Sir Chaloner Ogle, and his Commiſſion as ſuch, bears Date March 20, 1733. He commanded the Berwick Man of War in the Action in the Mediterranean, under Matthews and Leſtock. And when the Trial of thoſe two Admirals were before the late Houſe of Commons, all the Witneſſes concurred in the gallant Behaviour of Capt. Hawke, who was made a Rear Admiral at the laſt Promotion.

We are aſſured, that ſeveral Men of War are fitting out with all Expedition, as Guard-Ships for the Protection of our Coaſts.

St. JAMES's, November 13.

This Morning his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland arrived here from Holland.

LONDON, November 17.

On Saturday his Majeſty was pleaſed to preſent Admiral Hawke with the Order of Knighthood of the Bath.
